

Team & Culture

Objective

As more industries move towards a global marketplace, cultural diversity appreciation and acceptance continues to evolve as a growing need. Training or Developing must address and reflect a change in management practices in order to manage cultural diversity in the workplace and retain talent.

Successful organisations place workplace diversity and its benefits as a priority.

Process

Managing Cultural Diversity in the Workplace

- Understanding cultural norms in your organization
- Understanding your own cultural behaviour
- Understanding the differences in perceptions within teams
- Understanding the impact these differences have on your organisation
- Appreciating group diversity and learning how to make it work

